

ISSUES ON THE AGENDA FOR PRAMUN 2017

1. Human Rights Committee I

- Gender equality in the military and in diplomatic service
- Strengthening the freedom of the press and ensuring the safety of reporters

2. Human Rights Committee II

- Protecting the rights of workers in the animal slaughtering industry
- Protecting the rights of underage women who are forced into marriage

3. Disarmament Committee I

- Global ban on the possession of assault weapons as a means to combat terrorism
- Border security in remote and uninhabited regions

4. Disarmament Committee II

- Creating international rules for the safe use of armed drones
- Deescalating the situation in the South China Sea

5. Environmental Committee

- Illegal poaching and wildlife trade
- Deep-sea mining in the Arctic and Pacific region, a threat to our environment and political stability

6. Social and Cultural Committee

- Cultural integration in times of increasing rates of displaced persons worldwide
- Protection of World Heritage Sites in conflict zones

7. Economic and Financial Committee

- External debt sustainability in developing and transition economies
- Are off shore tax havens ethical, should they be banned globally, or do individuals have a right to deposit money in offshore bank accounts

8. Humanitarian Aid and Refugee Committee

- Establishing post-war relief in African countries
- Establishing guidelines for the protection and integration of migrant adolescents who have travelled without their parents

9. Committee on International Drug Control

- Synthetic drugs - an unregulated and emerging threat
- The war on drugs in the Philippines

10. Security Council

- The question of the DPRK in the wake of their latest nuclear tests
- The situation in Burundi
- The situation concerning Iraq

11. Historical Crisis Committee

War in Indochina

For the Historical Committee only, please contact Karolína Ticháčková, a member of the PRAMUN team, at tichakaro@gmail.com for your country selection and any further clarification needed in regards to the Historical Committee.